A NOTE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Saundra Bryant
Executive Director

I was excited about 2020, which began with our staff retreat. Our retreat is an opportunity for team building and planning for the upcoming year. Then, three months later, in March, everything changed. COVID-19 prompted an immediate shutdown of all non-essential services. In a community already impoverished with limited resources, a shutdown was devastating. Mothers and fathers employed in restaurants, factories, gardeners, or domestic workers were suddenly unemployed. The majority had no access to unemployment benefits. Many families depleted their sav-to families because the grocery stores were closed or burned. It is not surprising that we would be called into service again during a pandemic by being deemed an essential service by the City of Los Angeles' Mayor Eric Garcetti.

Our annual report highlights the dedication, commitment, and tremendous workload of our staff in 2020. There were 70-80 appointments daily to provide individuals and families with rental and utility assistance. As ings trying to make ends meet.

Our youth found themselves in a new environment entitled "distanced learning." Schools closed, and families had to rely on computers, laptops, and the internet to educate their children. Spotty internet connections and densely populated living situations highlighted the inequity in our neighborhoods.

In 1965, All Peoples remained open providing food and other essentials to families. In 1992, we remained open giving food our community members experienced trauma, so did our staff, as they listened to the stories shared by residents looking for help. We identified ways to provide compassion relief.

We could not accomplish our goals without the collective efforts of everyone associated with All Peoples. The philanthropic community reached out to organizations like All Peoples with flexible funding and special initiatives to address the consequences of COVID-19 in our community. The Board of Directors were supportive throughout the pandemic and looked for opportunities to support our staff. Last, but certainly not least, I thank our donors for their continuous support over the years. Because of their generosity, All Peoples remains a place where children, youth, and families are supported to realize their dreams.

Saundra Bryant,
Executive Director

A NOTE FROM OUR BOARD CHAIR

Seth Walworth

Board Chair

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I want to thank you for your indispensable commitment to All Peoples Community Center throughout the turbulence of 2020, one of the most challenging of our 78 years of proud service to the City of Los Angeles. The COVID-19 pandemic was particularly devastating to members of our community, many of whom lost jobs in the service sector and were not able to work remotely. Your support enabled us to lend a hand to our hardworking neighbors when they had nowhere else to turn.

We were ready to step up because of a relentless five year focus on meeting the core objectives of our 2015 strategic plan, ensuring that the Center had the financial resources to endure through tough times. We also created the infrastructure for our talented Executive Director, Saundra Bryant, and her adept staff to do even more, for more people, under unprecedented circumstances.

Over the past five years we became one of 16 Family Source Centers citywide, winning and continuing to earn the trust of the City of Los Angeles to increase income and educational attainment for our community. We invested in our dedicated team members with training, salary increases, recognition programs, and career development. We greatly improved their working environment and productivity with substantial upgrades to our building, our IT network, and our software tools. Our new, mobile-optimized website and its on-point, continuously refreshed content, reached a much wider and very generous audience. A new CRM system made operations more effective and more efficient, and provided the metrics that our funders require.

All of this growth was made possible by a Board from diverse backgrounds with varied expertise, the invaluable assistance from UCLA Anderson M.B.A. students and so many other volunteers, the unwavering support of our donors and, of course, our resilient, committed staff who do the work to deliver hope and opportunity.

“Your support enabled us to lend a hand to our hardworking neighbors when they had nowhere else to turn.”

- Seth Walworth

Thank you all for sustaining this special organization with its unique narrative, spanning several generations and neighborhood transformations from Japanese-American, to African-American, to Latino. Thanks to you, All Peoples anchors an important corner of this great city, serving everyone who walks through the door, an enduring reminder of the very best that our country aspires to be.

Respectfully,
Seth Walworth
Board Chair

MISSION STATEMENT

All Peoples Community Center is an all-encompassing neighborhood center whose mission is to provide social services and programs that empower individuals and promote community, respect and self-determination for all.

OUR HISTORY

Founded in 1942, All Peoples has served as a true safe haven for low-income children, youth, and families in South LA for 78 years. All Peoples serves more than 6,600 people per year in its 20,000-square-foot center located in South LA's Vernon-Central neighborhood, immediately south of downtown LA.

Started prior to the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s-60s, All Peoples Community Center was a revolutionary concept as described in the organization's 2008 Strategic Plan: "All Peoples is a non-profit, non-sectarian community center located in the very spot where it was originally founded in 1942

– in South Los Angeles. All Peoples has made incredible strides since it was first envisioned... as a place in the inner-city where people from all ethnicities, races, and religions could unite under one roof to share a vision for a stronger, more self-reliant community and to help turn the dreams of struggling local youth & adults into reality. At a time when de facto and de jure segregation were still an everyday reality in Los Angeles, the establishment of All Peoples, a multi-ethnic and multi-racial community center, was not just path-breaking, it was revolutionary."

Today, All Peoples is one of the city's sixteen FamilySource Centers, which are designed to incrementally move families out of poverty by providing a continuum of services to children and families – focusing on academic achievement and increased income. In March 2020, APCC was deemed by City of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti as an "essential service provider" during COVID-19. Our doors have remained open throughout the pandemic, providing hunger relief for families and older adults, emergency rental relief, and prevention of learning loss for school-age youth (related to COVID-19 distance learning).

2020 was a true test of the effectiveness and impact of the programming offered at All Peoples. All Peoples was deemed by City of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti an “essential services provider” during the COVID-19 pandemic. Our doors remained open throughout 2020 in compliance with public health guidelines. Staff immediately pivoted to provide COVID-19 Relief to the South Los Angeles community. FAMILYSOURCE CENTER BEST PRACTICE

During 2020, our standard programming proved to be just as strong and effective. From July 2019 to June 2020, All Peoples provided FamilySource services to 3,807 people. Among school-age youth, 172 increased academic achievements (98% of the original goal of 175 youth). Among parents, collective income was increased by $2,802,390 - five times the goal of $500,000. All Peoples is among the top-performing FamilySource Centers.

TWOGENERATION & STRENGTHENING FAMILIES MODELS

All Peoples has focused its efforts in the areas of education, financial stability, and healthy living in an effort to help end the cycle of poverty for our families and communities. All Peoples' strategic approach is the TwoGeneration Model, a best practice "providing services to both child and adults simultaneously and tracking outcomes for both" (Aspen Institute-ASCEND, "Making Tomorrow Better Together"). All Peoples also uses the Strengthening Families model from Strategies 2.0, an alliance of family resource centers across California. This model is centered on the beliefs that "Healthy families are the bedrock of strong, vibrant communities" (<https://strategiesca.org/vehiclesforchange/>).

Despite the challenges of COVID-19, our youth persevered and graduated from high school! Many have been involved in youth programs at All Peoples since elementary school. Some of the students from our Class of 2020 shared their favorite memories of All Peoples.

I will have a lot of good memories of All Peoples, but for sure, my favorite memories will be the amazing people I have met here.

– Jose Peralta

My favorite memory of All Peoples will be contributing to the community and giving back.

– Britany Pena

Mrs. Julia's class, my after-school program youth coordinator during elementary school, will be my favorite memory from All Peoples.

– Brayan Gonzalez

My favorite memory from All Peoples will be when we volunteered at the park.

– Aaron Villegas

My favorite memory at All Peoples will be when all the Youth-Source Members worked together as tutors to help the younger youth. We all got to know each other and had fun.

All Peoples' Executive Director Sandra Bryant is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and has served in her position for more than 30 years. Mrs. Bryant's journey with All Peoples began at the age of two years old when she attended childcare at All Peoples.

"I grew up with adults who nurtured my development and encouraged me to believe in myself and my potential to accomplish my goals. I returned to All Peoples as Executive Director to pay forward what I have received from my community. We are committed to ensuring that the community has access to resources to enhance their quality of life." – Sandra Bryant

Sandra Bryant has strategically focused her efforts on the longevity of All Peoples by aligning the Center with community-based organizations and resources. All Peoples is a formal member of the South LA Transit Empowerment Zone (SLATE-Z), a 10-year anti-poverty strategy with 55 cross-sector partners and a federal Promise Zone designation. All Peoples signed the SLATE-Z Memorandum of Understanding and is a member of the education work group and subcommittee on summer youth jobs including policy advocacy.

In 2020, All Peoples was nominated by the Ballmer Group, The Ralph M. Parsons Foundation, and The Rose Hills Foundation to participate in The Bridgespan Group's Leading for Impact® (LFI) program. Leading for Impact® (LFI) consists of 50 non-profits in Los Angeles. All Peoples will work in cohort format with 5 -7 Los Angeles agencies in 2021-2022, bringing together leadership teams to build and strengthen organizational performance through workshops and project-focused coaching. Consulting support is also provided to help executive teams increase their organization's impact.

GOAL 4:

HUMAN CAPITAL, BOARD DEVELOPMENT & SUCCESSION PLANNING

Board operating at full capacity with a diverse and engaged membership and active committees and task forces

OUR BOARD IS DEDICATED TO THE COMMUNITY

All Peoples recruits board members from the broader Los Angeles region with a variety of expertise to advance our mission and financial sustainability. Over the past 5 years, All Peoples has expanded the Board, now consisting of eleven Directors. 54% of board members are people of color and 38% are women. Areas of expertise include sales, law, finance, non-profits, marketing and more.

Our Board shares All Peoples' mission with their networks to spread awareness and to build relationships and connections between All Peoples and other community-based organizations. 100% of our Board makes personal cash contributions to the organization. In addition, our Board takes a hands-on approach toward our mission by volunteering at community events such as our Community Thanksgiving Dinner, Supplemental Food Program, and Holiday Toy Giveaway.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS DIVERSITY

Our Board is comprised of seven active committees and task forces to provide a renewed focus and accountability for All Peoples. These standing committees and task forces oversee the processes and procedures of specific departments of All Peoples to ensure that necessary resources are allocated for its success. During the COVID-19 pandemic, our committees and task forces dedicated additional time and resources to provide and review data sets to best maximize resources for South Los Angeles.

In addition, "board interns" known as Board Fellows from UCLA's Anderson School of Management provide additional support for our committees and task forces. Board Fellows serve on our Board for one calendar year.

MARKETING & RAISING AWARENESS

All Peoples Community Center established brand and programs will have increased viability and recognition through the efforts of a fully functioning marketing/advertising/PR Department

CREATING A UNIFIED STORY FOR ALL PEOPLES

All Peoples audited our present-day branding and marketing efforts with the goal of creating consistency throughout all marketing materials. In 2020, we developed and implemented marketing strategies to establish our All Peoples brand, creating a unified story about All Peoples.

BRAND IDENTITY WITH VISUAL BRANDING GUIDE

All Peoples revamped its iconic logo into a clean and modern design and created a visual branding guide for all future marketing materials. Branding assets include official logo variants, guidelines, colors and font. Our digital monthly newsletter, digital flyers, and print media have all been refined through this guide. Our visual branding guidelines can be found at: allpeoplescc.org/about-us/assets/

WEBSITE

All Peoples is in the process of developing a brand new website that is slated to launch mid-2022. The redesign will be streamlined, search engine optimized with content updated regularly.

SLOGAN

Our slogan is strong and clear:

Real Solutions, Real Heart, Real Service to South LA Since 1942.

Our new branding has increased viability and recognition of All Peoples, resulting in an increased awareness of the services and programs that we offer to South Los Angeles. In 2020, CBS News featured All Peoples in their COVID-19 Relief series, “Economic fallout from pandemic disproportionately hits Latinas.” This was national coverage which resulted in an increase in donations.

All Peoples was also featured in the Los Angeles Society Page for our efforts in helping South Los Angeles Youth with distance Learning during COVID-19.

Raising awareness about our Mission to provide social services and programs that empower individuals and promote community, respect and self-determination for all has resulted in the building of key community partnerships in South Los Angeles.

All Peoples builds genuine and inclusive partnerships with children, families, seniors, schools, community-based organizations, businesses, government, and philanthropy to meet local needs.

In recent years, All Peoples has established many new partnerships with community-based organizations including Magic Johnson Enterprises, the Los Angeles Clippers, Alex Caruso of the Los Angeles Lakers through Instacart, The LA84 Foundation, The National Basketball Players Association (NBPA), Warner Music Group, Women Helping Youth (W.H.Y.), Angel City Football Club, CARE, DoorDash, and more.

All Peoples Community Center Continues to Help Kids with Distance Learning

By Sydney Matthews | Nov 19, 2020 | Feature, General, News

LOS ANGELES LAKER ALEX CARUSO AND INSTACART

Los Angeles Laker Alex Caruso and Instacart surprised three of our families with groceries and a $5,000 Instacart gift card! The father of one of our families of 4 is a restaurant worker. He was laid off due to COVID-19, and was only able to work limited hours throughout 2020. In December 2020, Alex showed up with groceries and a $5,000 gift card just in time for the holidays, after the father was laid off for the second time due to COVID shutdowns.

ANGEL CITY FOOTBALL CLUB (ACFC)

In 2020, The LA84 Foundation introduced All Peoples to the new Los Angeles women's Angel City Football Club (ACFC). ACFC generously donated 150 soccer balls, books, and gifts for Christmas for our youth. "We want to support the mission of All Peoples and the work that they do," Catherine Dávila, Head of Community of Angel City Football Club said.

In addition, Angel City Football Club introduced All Peoples to CARE - a global leader within a worldwide movement dedicated to ending poverty. Through our new partnership with CARE, we were able to expand our Senior Food Delivery Service in South Los Angeles, delivering food to low-income seniors who are homebound due to COVID-19 health and safety concerns. CARE has provided us with DoorDash drivers which has increased our number of food delivery participants.

PARTNERSHIPS & COLLABORATIONS

PARTNERING WITH THE BEST, SO THAT OUR FAMILIES RECEIVE THE BEST

GOAL 6:

PHYSICAL FACILITIES & TECHNOLOGY

- Create a comprehensive facility development plan to expand space to meet current and future programming needs, creating a welcoming environment and be accessible to all members of the community.
- Start upgrading the facility by focusing on upgrading technology to ensure that all staff have standardized equipment to effectively conduct their jobs and serve the community.

In 2015, All Peoples started outlining our facility development plan to transform our 20,000 square foot center with improvements to better serve our community. From 2015-2020, we conducted an aggressive capital support campaign to substantially upgrade and renovate our facility.

Through the generous support of foundations, corporations, individual donors, and volunteers, All Peoples has undergone massive renovations to expand our space to meet current and future programming needs, creating a welcoming environment and becoming accessible to all members of the community.

In 2020, All Peoples began our Americans with Disabilities Act improvement project to meet federal requirements, per the Americans with Disabilities Act, and state requirements, per the California Building Code. This project will transform access to services at All Peoples for 575 low-income children, youth, parents, families, seniors, and any community members who have a disability. The facility will undergo a total of 144 exterior and interior improvements based on an Americans with Disabilities Act survey prepared by a Certified Access Specialist (CASP). The project is scheduled to be completed by September 2022.

To upgrade staff technology to effectively serve the community, All Peoples purchased and implemented Apricot, a Customer Relationship Management software system. Apricot has boosted our data collection and analysis capacity. Our new software makes operations more effective and efficient, and it provides the metrics that our funders require. For families served under our TwoGeneration strategy, All Peoples also enters data into a second system: BitFocus, the City-mandated electronic data system.

To track increases in youth academic achievement, All Peoples uses an online assessment tool called "STAR Reading, STAR Math." STAR Testing is an online assessment program developed by Renaissance Learning for students in grades K-12. The program is used to determine a student's overall reading and math level, as well as identify individual strengths and weaknesses. It is designed to provide instructors with individual student data quickly and accurately, producing several useful reports designed to assist in targeting which students need intervention and in what areas.

TRACKING YOUTH DATA

On average, each year College Advisors help students submit...

An average of $200,000 of financial aid is secured through FAFSA each year with the help of College Advisors

To standardize equipment throughout the facility, All Peoples has invested in new phones, new computers, and upgraded software for all staff. Our new state-of-the-art computer lab helps to bridge the digital divide. The lab offers youth an opportunity to improve their computer literacy skills and complete homework assignments. Parents utilize the computer lab to facilitate job searches and gain access to online resources.

THANK YOU DONORS & SPONSORS

WE CONTINUE SERVING THE SOUTH LOS ANGELES COMMUNITY BECAUSE OF YOU

It is because of your generous donation that we are able to serve many families who have limited resources. All Peoples would not be able to bring critical services resources to the community without your help. Thank you to all of the foundations, corporations and individuals that support our work. Your generous donation enables us to continue serving the South Los Angeles Vernon-Central Community with Real Solutions, Real Heart, and Real Service.

LA HEROINES

The LA Heroines is a non-profit organization whose mission is to serve, build, and empower women in need. Their FEMMEssentials Project provides women in low-income and unsheltered communities with essential feminine care products, such as sanitary pads and tampons. During the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, LA Heroines sought out All Peoples and made several donations of essentials including feminine products, blankets and socks that we were able to distribute to the community.

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

School closures and social isolation have affected all students, but particularly those living in poverty during COVID-19. Modern Woodmen of America Financial Rep Victor Nwaba provided a generous monetary donation to our After-School “Tomorrow’s Leaders” Program. Funds allowed our youth to participate in online art and enrichment programs during this unprecedented time. In addition, Modern Woodmen of America annually sponsors our Back to School Night. This event provides backpacks and school supplies to over 300 youth each year.
