A NOTE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

SAUNDRA BRYANT

Executive Director

The year began with great expectations as we planned for yearlong celebrations. The seeds that were planted by Dan and Frances Genung in 1942 continued to be harvested for the past 80 years. In 2022, we celebrated the 80th Anniversary of All Peoples Community Center. This report includes numerous stories of the fulfillment of our mission in facilitating the transformation of individuals and improving the quality of life for members of our community.

In the beginning, our budget was under $5,000. This year our operating revenues were over $3.8 million dollars. Through the diligent efforts of the staff, and support of board members and donors, we have been able to expand the quality of programs and provide essential resources to the community. The sustained growth is accomplished with a 13% Administrative cost.

We are proud to say that .87 cents of every $1.00 provides direct support for our program participants.

I am pleased to highlight two new programs that we added to the plethora of services offered by All Peoples. First, the establishment of the Food Security Department allowed us to coordinate all the food service activities under one unit. We can measure our impact in addressing the issues faced by community residents living in a “food desert.” This year we provided over half a million meals to program participants. The second program is the enhanced services for financial empowerment. The success of the savings program, financial literacy workshops, and coaching for all age groups are key elements in breaking the cycle of generational poverty.

Our future involves a major leadership change. After nearly 40 years, I informed the Board of Directors of my plan to retire in September 2023. All Peoples was my beacon of hope as a child growing up in the community. As an adult, my purpose in life is fulfilled through sharing my gifts and talents with the community that nurtured my development. I have full confidence that the Board of Directors will identify the right person to prepare All Peoples for the days ahead.

Thank you for allowing me to be of service as we celebrate 80 years.

Saundra Bryant

Saundra Bryant was hired as Executive Director. She established our first grant with United Way of Greater Los Angeles.
INTERNMENT OF JAPANESE AMERICANS

The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) founded the Japanese Christian Institute in 1906 as a Home Mission Center. The Japanese Christian Institute stood for many years in the midst of an area populated by thousands of men and women whose ancestors had come from Japan to answer the call for workers during the booming agriculture of the West. The Institute was well organized, providing Sunday school services and young people's programs during the week - kindergarten, English classes, athletics, and clubs.

In March 1942, the involuntary evacuation of Japanese Americans on the west coast was ordered. The Japanese Americans were forced to relocate to internment camps, leaving behind their homes, businesses, and communities. The doors were locked, and the playground was deserted. There was silence on the corner of 822 E 20th Street.

ALL PEOPLES CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND COMMUNITY CENTER

In October 1942, the building was reopened as All Peoples Christian Church and Community Center under the leadership of Reverend Dan and Frances Genung. The vision of Rev. Genung was to provide a space where all are welcome. When the war ended, many of the Japanese Americans returned and found a new home within All Peoples.

A MISSION CENTER IS BORN

All Peoples Community Center's mission is to provide social services and programs that empower individuals and promote community respect and self-determination for all.

Started prior to the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s-60s, All Peoples was a revolutionary concept. “All Peoples was first envisioned as a place in the inner-city where people from all ethnicities, races, and religions could unite under one roof to share a vision for a stronger, more self-reliant community and to help turn the dreams of struggling local youth and adults into reality.” (2008 Strategic Plan). At a time when de facto and de jure segregation were still an everyday reality in Los Angeles, the establishment of All Peoples, a multi-ethnic and multi-racial community center, was not just path-breaking, it was revolutionary.

Today, All Peoples provides a myriad of social and educational services to more than 6,600 people per year in its 20,000-square-foot center. Services are intentionally designed to achieve the following goals: to help children succeed at each stage of development; to strengthen and support individuals and families and build community; to prevent violence and crime in the community and the home; to provide job training and create job opportunities; and to help seniors stay active and engaged.

All Peoples’ flagship anti-poverty program is its FamilySource Center, which uses the best practice TwoGeneration model to incrementally move families out of poverty by focusing on youth academic achievement and increased income. Services include licensed extended day childcare, after school programs, academic tutoring, a college corner, computer lab, summer camp, summer jobs, homelessness prevention, workforce development and career assistance, ESL classes, citizenship classes, financial literacy and coaching, free tax preparation, case management, immigration legal services, parenting classes, domestic violence support groups, food distribution, community garden, senior volunteer program, and more.
The All Peoples team is homegrown, BIPOC, racially diverse, bilingual Spanish/English, and reflects the neighborhood served. On our team, 87% of employees are Latinx, 11% are African American, 2% are Native American, 87% speak Spanish, 62% are South LA residents, and 43% are former All Peoples program participants or interns.

“I love working here. I've always had a passion for tackling food insecurity. When I was a child, there were times where we didn't have enough to eat. With All Peoples, we're able to provide food for families and make sure that no child or anyone in the community goes hungry. It makes me smile knowing that we're doing the work that we can, so families don't have to make that decision anymore on food or bills. No one else has to go through what I went through.”

CHRISTMAS TOY GIVEAWAY

All Peoples relaunched our Annual Christmas Toy Giveaway. With the help of our Sponsors Mike Wells and Friends including Northrop Grumman, staff was able to distribute a total of 157 gifts to youth. In addition, youth enjoyed arts & crafts, snacks, personalized gifts, and pictures with Santa. Families also were able to receive new clothing through a generous donation by Pan-Pacific Co Ltd.

Thank you to all community members, volunteers, staff, board members and sponsors who joined us for the event!

Pico Robinson Lions Club President Bob Brunner gave his first donation of a tricycle, two wagons and a Christmas tree for our youth. The L.A. Host Lions Club continues to support our youth today through the Lark Ellen Foundation.
To enhance financial wellness by preparing students with regard to proper financial management, All Peoples in partnership with Angel City Football Club (AFCF) and Crypto.com, launched a new Youth Financial Literacy Program that provides youth the opportunity to learn about managing and saving their money. This 10-week Financial Literacy Workshop allows students to attend 2-hours of financial literacy sessions per week. Topics included Choosing a Banking Partner, Importance of Saving, Budgeting, and more.

With the saving match offered by ACFC and Crypto.com, participants were able to save a total of $10,000.

“I've been working at All Peoples going on 12 years, but I practically grew up here. I've been here since I was 8 years old. All the programs I run, I used to be a part of those.”

– Deisy Hernandez,
Youth Director
All Peoples provides a FamilySource College Corner throughout the year to promote access to college. Our College Advisors work closely with all youth, elementary to high school, to ensure that everyone knows that “College is Possible” regardless of socioeconomic status. College Advisors conduct workshops and one-on-one sessions with high school youth to review transcripts, college admissions, academic requirements, and scholarship opportunities that align with the youth’s goals and aspirations. During these sessions, College Advisors and youth review career options, potential salaries, and college research based on the youth’s likes and interests to develop and implement a college plan and possible career path. College Advisors assist with mandated college or youth employment program testing, including CASAS, SAT, and ACT.

In 2022, College Advisors and Ambassadors took youth and families on campus tours at various colleges, including UCLA, California State University Dominguez Hills (CSUDH), CSULA and CSUN. During the campus tours, students learned about campus history, admission requirements and more. An average of 50 youth and parents attended each tour. On average, College Advisors help students transmit 50 California State University (CSU), 30 University of California (UC), and 20 community college applications. An average of $200,000 of financial aid is secured through FAFSA each year with the help of College Advisors.

“As a first-generation college student, my family really couldn’t help much with the college process. All Peoples was here to help me with college applications, scholarships and FAFSA. All Peoples has helped me so much these past 14 years.”
- Edson Hernandez, Program Participant
All Peoples created the Geraldine Morgan Scholarship Fund in honor of Geraldine Morgan’s 99th Birthday. Gerri, former secretary and RSVP advisory councilmember, raised her family in South LA and has been a member of the All Peoples community for more than seventy years.

FamilySource Center College Ambassador Ulises Alegria and Public Ally Michelle Blanco hosted "Intro to Middle School" and "Intro to High School" workshops, providing youth with advice and tips on how to be well prepared for their journey into the next school level. Youth also shared their goals for Middle and High School.

All Peoples established The Geraldine Morgan Scholarship Fund to provide financial support to low income South Los Angeles students who aspire to enroll in a 2- or 4-year higher education institution. Youth who are enrolled in our After-School “Tomorrow's Leaders” Program, FamilySource College Corner, and our YouthSource Center are eligible to apply to the scholarship fund. All of our recipients are first-generation college students.

Through donor support, we award a minimum of four $1,000 scholarships every year. In 2022, due to the generosity of MUFG Union Bank, Kelly Phe & Vu Nguyen, and Ann Toler & Thomas Bourgeois, we were able to offer 9 scholarships of $1,000. It is a competitive process, and applicants are only eligible to receive the scholarship once. A panel of 3-4 judges selects each year's scholarship recipients based on criteria including a 250-500 word essay submission, a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, and civic engagement.
All Peoples employed 78 youth through our paid work experience program - Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) - totaling 9,360 hours. This means that $145,200 of income was invested back into our community. This program is sponsored by the City of Los Angeles Economic Workforce Development Department.

For youth needing additional academic support, All Peoples offers a Reading and Math Virtual Tutoring program, which serves an average of 65 youth per semester. Sessions are twice a week for 45 minutes.

Additional sessions are available for students needing additional academic support. A small number of youth receive in-person services.

"Urban Adventures" Summer Day Camp was held for 65 youth entering 2nd to 8th grade. All Peoples Staff made sure there was plenty of fun and laughter during camp, while still accomplishing our overall goal for campers: to sustain or increase youth reading and math levels over the summer.

In addition to academic support, All Peoples trained 30 Junior Counselors in Training (CIT), youth 14 to 24 years of age. This provided youth an opportunity to develop leadership skills and act as role models through their attitude and behavior.

Summer 2022 was the return of Camp Joe Ide after a 2-year hiatus due to COVID. Camp Joe Ide was held at Loch Leven Camp and Conference Center in the San Bernardino Mountains. 32 campers, ages 8-12, and 4 CITs enjoyed swimming, archery, arts & crafts, hiking and more.

“I came from a very poor family. All Peoples provided three scholarships for me to go to Camp All Peoples. When the Monarchs came together, I said that we have to help some kids go to camp. We have to give back what was so freely and lovingly given to us.”

– Harold Patton, Monarchs Member
I'm really grateful to All Peoples for giving me a laptop. This laptop has made it easier for me to get my school work done, and I will have my own laptop when I go to college. I'm ready to undertake college work and pursue a degree in mechanical engineering.

- Gabriel
YouthSource Center Participant, Gabriel has received acceptance letters from California State Los Angeles and Dominguez Hills

Growing up in South Central is not easy because of the lack of financial literacy. Through the All Peoples youth program, I applied to the Toyota Scholarship that helped me finance my education to Cal State. Now, I put it as my mission to develop courses to help residents understand how to navigate themselves financially for a better life.

- Enrique Peralta
Graduate of California State University, Northridge

During the pandemic, I was struggling with my high school online classes because I had to borrow a friend's laptop to do my assignments. All Peoples provided me with a laptop so I could do my work. Although we returned to school, the fact of having a laptop continued to help with homework and assignments as my school continued to use many online learning techniques. Now that I am starting a new stage in my life, university, this laptop will help me a lot with my classes, taking notes on readings, studying, and facilitating Internet access for my work, among many other things that benefit me. I am very grateful to the people who made this possible, thank you very much and I hope you continue to help other people who also need it, thank you very much!

2022 was the return of our All Peoples annual Thanksgiving Community Dinner! We were able to provide a hot meal to 865 community members. In addition, we distributed 175 turkeys to families to enjoy their own delicious home-cooked celebration. All Peoples would like to acknowledge and thank event sponsors Angel City Football Club and DoorDash Impact.

All Peoples is grateful for all individuals and group volunteers who helped distribute food to the community including Los Angeles Host Lions Club, Coalition for Responsible Community Development (CRCD), Coalition for Engaged Education, M.E.J.O.R., Angel City Football Club and DoorDash Impact.
All Peoples has emerged as a leader in South LA's Food Justice Movement, helping to increase food access and security where access to healthy and affordable food is limited.

Through the support of DoorDash, we have established a new Food Security Department. Our vision is to address food insecurity issues within the community served by All Peoples by integrating existing programs and measuring performance and impact in the community. All Peoples' new Food Security Department incorporates our four existing food programs. All Peoples hired Capri Downs as the new Food Security Coordinator to oversee the department, and in 2022 All Peoples successfully served over 500,000 meals to residents.

All Peoples was selected by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn's office to distribute cheese and butter to low income families in the 2nd district. At the conclusion of the program, All Peoples responded to the request from residents for a regular distribution and nutrition education, creating the All Peoples Supplemental Food Program.
FOOD SECURITY DEPARTMENT

All Peoples supports community organizing to address health and economic inequities in Los Angeles through our "Corazón de la Gente" (Heart of the People) Community Garden.

In collaboration with American Friends Service Committee, All Peoples has established the 6,000 sq. ft. garden that consists of 22 raised family beds and one designated for the “Roots for Peace” youth program. The farm serves as a cultural green space for farm participants and community members to share horticultural knowledge and practices that were utilized in their own families.

All Peoples Community Farm Facilitator serves as the liaison and resource for the leadership advisory group and assists with garden maintenance and bed scheduling for residents, aids in conflict resolution among farm member disputes, etc. The Farm Facilitator creates workshops to increase engagement among its members with guidance from the farm participants. Participants create a communal food system that improves access to healthy and cultural foods, rebuilds the ancestral connection to the earth, and increases collective power and self-determination.
All Peoples, in partnership with Councilman Curren Price of Council District Nine Office (CD9), City of Los Angeles Community Investment for Families Department, and Ready LA, unveiled and officially opened the doors to the Trinity Neighborhood Center on June 22, 2022. The Trinity Neighborhood Center brings additional support and services to the local community that was affected by the 27th Street fireworks explosion that occurred in June 2021. All Peoples will run the day-to-day operations of the Trinity Neighborhood Center. Services include case management, resources such as food, diapers, rental or utility assistance, employment and immigration services, financial literacy, tax services, tutoring and parenting classes.

The Council Office District 9 selected All Peoples to provide funeral, burial, and medical bill reimbursements to families whose family member (living in Council District 9) passed away due to COVID. The allocation is up to $1,000 per family. This program will serve 200 unduplicated individuals through July 2022.

All Peoples assisted with the facilitation of the City-funded Basic Income Guaranteed: Los Angeles Economic Assistance Pilot (BIG: LEAP) Program. The program is a research study consisting of 6,500 low income applicants with at least one dependent child. 3,000 applicants were selected to receive a monthly no-strings-attached disbursement of $1,000 per month for twelve months. Another 3,500 applicants were selected to participate in a control group who did not receive monthly cash deposits, but participated in surveys and interviews about wellbeing. A research team compared the information with the group selected to receive the monthly cash deposits. All Peoples FamilySource staff assisted residents with the application process.

City of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti declared All Peoples an essential service during COVID 19. Our doors remained open throughout the pandemic, providing emergency services to South Los Angeles. Services included food distribution, rental relief and youth online tutoring services.
All Peoples, in partnership with CARE, launched the Community Trust Program. The program objective is to help build financial resilience in communities of color through community-based, goal-oriented savings. CARE is piloting with All Peoples and community-based organizations in three other cities across the US to start savings groups. All Peoples’ first savings group, which consisted of our members from our women’s support group M.E.J.O.R. (Mujeres En Justa Organización Recíproca), successfully saved $38,200. They saved an additional $1,410 for their social impact fund. The social impact fund is to provide support to members for emergencies. The group participated in financial education classes as part of the yearlong program. All Peoples, Angel City Football Club (ACFC) and CARES surprised the group with free individual Chromebooks.

FINANCIAL LITERACY WORKSHOPS

Financial Literacy Workshops were held throughout the year to enhance fiscal health in South Los Angeles. The workshops aim to help families develop skills to create a personal budget plan and savings goals. Financial instructors teach topics from the FDIC Money Smart curriculum. Topics include: basic budgeting, understanding credit reports, the dos and don’ts of credit card usage, consumer’s rights and protection, saving and investment products among other subjects. Workshop participants were eligible to partake in the Individual Development Account (IDA) program, which rewards participants by matching their accounts. All Peoples offered a 1:1 match up to $250 to encourage savings.
Our 80th Anniversary Celebration was a huge success. With more than 240 people in attendance at the Sheraton Grand, we celebrated the accomplishments of four incredible honorees and exceeded our goals in fundraising.

As Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard eloquently stated in the evening’s opening presentation, “All Peoples has been a beacon of hope for a better future by assisting children, youth, and families in need of after-school programs, legal services, case-management, health care workshops and other essential needs.”

With everyone’s help, we raised $134,231 during our 80th Anniversary Celebration!

A huge thank you goes out to Drew Powell for serving as the Master of Ceremonies.

All Peoples hosted our first Gala. Actor and future President Ronald Reagan was a guest at our first Gala called The Bread and Water Banquet. The theme for the night was “We Give – That Others May Live.”

Featured Donor - Elizabeth Valencia

As a youth, Elizabeth attended the All Peoples on-site SAAY Central High School. Elizabeth remembers her teacher Kathy Masaoka provided her with a $500 scholarship. Elizabeth was truly grateful, as it helped her pay for college supplies and other expenses. Elizabeth is currently a 2nd grade teacher at Western Elementary. In February 2022, Elizabeth returned to All Peoples to pay it forward. All Peoples would like to acknowledge and thank Elizabeth for her $500 donation to our Geraldine Morgan Scholarship Fund. A NOTE FROM OUR BOARD CHAIR

CHRISTINE GALLIGANI

Board Chair

Celebrating 80 years of service to the South Los Angeles community is an impressive feat! Statistically, roughly one third of nonprofit organizations fail to exist beyond the first ten years of operation. All Peoples Community Center has remained successful because of the commitment to its purpose-driven mission, strong leadership, dedicated staff, impassioned Board members, and supportive sponsors, donors and volunteers. It is only with this collective effort that All Peoples can continue to empower individuals and promote community respect and self-determination for all. On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are grateful for your continued support of All Peoples Community Center!

As we made it to a new milestone in our history of service, All Peoples also initiated construction at the Center. The American Disabilities Act upgrades which are being completed will ensure that our facility is accessible to all. New ramps were installed, along with upgraded handrails and restroom features. The lobby and reception area received a complete makeover, and an elevator was installed to permit everyone access to the second floor of the building. We are grateful to our construction partners, Pankow Builders, who were able to complete the work mostly outside of our hours of operation, ensuring that All Peoples was able to keep its doors open to those we benefit without disruption to essential services.

Planning a momentous celebration and completing a renovation are both significant projects. Yet, they pale in comparison to the biggest task that the Board worked towards in 2022 and 2023: searching for the next Executive Director of All Peoples Community Center. After 40 years – a career lifetime of service to the same South Los Angeles community where she grew up and to the Community Center whose doors she first entered when she was only 2 years old – Saundra Bryant announced that she would retire in September 2023. Sandy's contributions to All Peoples can't be overstated. She has helped to shape the neighborhood and the community organizations that serve the area, as well as raised the bar for nonprofit service within the entire City of Los Angeles. We are grateful for her leadership and for her ability to make positive change in the lives of those she has worked with and for every day. In her honor, we have established the Saundra Bryant Legacy Fund. This endowment is designed to support the ongoing operations of All Peoples Community Center, to ensure that it continues to benefit the next generation. It is our goal to raise a total of $500,000 and, as of the time this letter was written, we have raised a total of $139,000. Please help us celebrate All Peoples Community Center's extraordinary Executive Director with a gift to the Saundra Bryant Legacy Fund by scanning the QR Code below or visiting bit.ly/saundrabryantlegacyfund.

Maintaining the Center's service to South LA is as vitally important as finding the right successor to lead All Peoples, so the Board took several steps to ensure our success. First, we used the annual Board Retreat to complete some reflection and self-analysis. As a result of that work, we identified the need to redefine our standing committees and clarify their roles and responsibilities. This provided us with a strong foundation from which we could build as we began our search for someone who had the technical skills to direct an organization like All Peoples as well as the vision and heart to truly lead it into its next phase.

We created an Executive Search Task Force to take the lead in the process to find our new Executive Director. Board Members who were interested in this role submitted an application and were selected based on the criteria we identified as most important to represent the All Peoples organization. The five selected members and one alternate member understood the gravity of the task and took this responsibility seriously, bringing their collective experience and wisdom to the search process.

Additionally, we applied to and were fortunately granted one of 6 spaces in the 2023 Nonprofit Sustainability Initiative cohort. This LA-based fund, sponsored by the California Community Foundation, invests in nonprofit organizations in order to support them in times of transition. Both the Executive Director and Board Chair from each of the selected nonprofit organizations met monthly as we all navigated this significant organizational change, providing insight and sharing our concerns and successes along the way. What a valuable and encouraging resource for us!

Finally, the Board partnered with the National Benevolent Association. As our Executive Search consultants, Mark Palmer and Monica Wedlock Kilpatrick helped us establish our timeline and process for the search. They helped us complete a thorough survey of our clients, staff and community partners in order to help establish the targeted qualifications for which we would begin recruitment. They helped us market the open position and assisted our Executive Search Task Force with filtering applicants and establishing interviews.

A total of 29 candidates applied for the position. From the application and through two rounds of interviews, one person remained at the top of everyone’s list. Brandy Muñiz showed that she had the vision, skills, and heart to drive an organization like All Peoples through to its next iteration. On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are thrilled to welcome Brandy as the Executive Director of All Peoples Community Center! Her understanding of the All Peoples mission and passion for the important work done by the Center will provide a strong foundation for her leadership, and we look forward to our continued success and growth as we move forward.

As we continue through this transitional phase, we want to thank you for your continued support of All Peoples – a Center with a rich history and promising future. We are humbled by the ability to make positive change in the lives of so many. Your time and donations allow us to adapt and continue providing the most essential services to our neighbors in South LA, and we remain grateful for your contributions.

In gratitude,
